So it's time for another [link] edition of the annual creative economy [link] survey, by the Index of Creativity and Innovation. It asks 59 questions, covering a range of topics, from 'The size of the creative economy' to 'How important is the creative sector to the UK economy?' and questions like, 'Are people in the creative industries more creative than people in other industries?' or 'Which industries are most innovative?' The full list of questions can be found here [link], but in
